THURSDAY, JULY 18, 1745.

Florence, July 3.

WE are informed that our Regency have not only granted Leave to the Spaniards lately arrived from Porto Hercole at Leghorn, to debark, but also to march under our Walls, and so by the Canal to Piſa; from whence they are to go by the Arno to Bientina, and thence into the Territory of Lucca, paying Ready Money for every Thing that is furniſh'd them in their Paſſage. They have likewiſe granted a like Tranſit thro' our Dominions to Sienna for a much larger Body of Neapolitan and Spaniſh Troops, lately arrived from Orbitello, which are to march by Sarzana into the Territories of the State of Genoa, but there are 2000 Auſtrian Huſſars and Croats at Chiaveri and Lestri, who may, poſſibly, oppoſe their Junction with the Army of Count Gages. Some Advices from thence inform us, that a like Body of Huſſars and Croats had been ſent to carry off the Corn and Forage that had been collected for the Uſe of the Allies at Voltaggio; but General Count de Gages having detach'd a Body of Horſe and Dragoons to ſurprize them, we are likewiſe informed that they retired with ſome Precipitation.

Extract of a Private Letter from the Pruſſian Army in Bohemia, dated June 30, 1745.

'His Majeſty having march'd towards Konigſgratz, 'the Auſtrian Army decamp'd in haſte, in order to 'poſt themſelves at the Confluence of the Elbe and the 'Adler; and his Majeſty has taken ſuch a Camp, as 'overlooks that of the Auſtrians, and enables him to 'thunder upon them with his Artillery at pleaſure. On 'the 29th there was a very briſk Action between 300 'of our Dragoons and a great Corps of Tartars, in 'which the latter were defeated with conſiderable Loſs. 'On the 30th his Majeſty detached General Naſſau with 'a fine Corps of Troops, and with Orders ſo cleanſe 'the Upper Sileſia of that Rabble of Hungarians with 'which it has been infected ſince the Margrave Charles, 'with the Body of Troops under his Command, march'd 'out of that Country to join the Army.'

Extract from the Journal of the French Army from the Camp at Boſt, July 11.

'On the 8th the King quitted his Quarters at the 'Chartreuſe before Grammont, in order to come and 'lie them here. On the 9th, about Nine in the Morn-'ing, the Marſhal gave Orders for the Brigades of Nor-'mandy and Crillon to march under the Command of 'the Vicount de Chaila, in order to eſtabliſh a Brigade 'over the Scheld, between Ghent and Dendermond; and, 'at the ſame time, 800 Graſſines had Orders to facilitate 'that March. About the Cloſe of Day that Detachment 'took Poſt at a Farm near the Caſtle of Melle, a League 'from Ghent. They had not been there an Hour, before 'their Centinels perceived a Column of Troops advanc-'ing towards them, in good Order. Immediately upon 'this, Four Dragoons were detached for Intelligence; 'but on their Approach to the Column before-mentioned, 'they received a Diſcharge of 800 ſmall Arms, which, 'however, did no other Miſchief than killing a Horſe. 'The Farm was preſently inveſted; and that ſo effect-'ually, there was not a Creature could get out. M. de 'Chaila having, in the mean time, no News from his 'Graſſines, believed that they had puſhed on without 'Oppoſition; and therefore reſolved to encamp with 'his Detachment, and to ſend Part of his Cavalry to 'Forage. Some of the latter ſpeedily return'd, and 'brought him Advice, that they heard a great Firing; 'upon which, he marched according to their Directions. 'The Brigade of Crillon charg'd firſt, with their Bayonets 'fix'd, which obliged the Enemy to make a Motion 'towards the Right. The Brigade of Normandy 'charg'd them on that Side; and, at this very Inſtant, 'the Graſſines ſallied in a Body from the Farmers Yards. 'The Enemy upon this retired, leaving Six Field Pieces, 'and ſeveral Pontons. We halted on the 10th; and 'the Marſhal received Advice, that in the late Affair at 'Melle, the Enemy loſt 2000 Men, kill'd, wounded, and 'taken Priſoners. This Morning Ghent was ſurprized, 'and at Break of Day Oudenard was inveſted; the 'Cannon of the Town has play'd very briskly upon us 'ever ſince. It is thought we ſhall ſpeedily encamp 'between Aloſt and Ghent.'

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, July 11. Very early Yeſterday Morning the Hon. LONDON.

The Pruſſian Miniſter at the Dyet of Franckfort has proteſted againſt the Vote of Bohemia; to which Proteſt none of the other Electors have adhered.

The Nottingham, a new Sixty Gun Ship, will be launch'd the firſt Week in Auguſt at Sheerneſs, and is to be commanded by Lord George Graham, who lately diſtinguiſh'd himſelf by deſtroying the Dunkirk Privateers.

The Dead Warrant for Lieutenant Phillips, late of the Angleſea, was diſpatched to Portſmouth Yeſterday Noon, and he is to be ſhot To-morrow on the Forecaſtle of one of the Ships now riding at Spithead.

This Day the Devonſhire Man of War, of 80 Guns, will be launched at Woolwich.

The Spy Sloop of War being on a Cruize, fell in with a Ship from New England; and being informed that ſhe had a Packet on board for the Government, brought it forward, as not only ſailing much better, but having more Force. This Ship is ſaid to have left New England about the End of May, when they had no Account from Cape Breton freſher than the Middle of that Month; at which Time, we were in Poſſeſſion of the grand Battery of Thirty-ſix Forty-two Pounders, which commands the Harbour. There was a perfect Harmony between General Pepperall of the New England Forces, and Commodore Warren, and they make no doubt of being Maſters of the Iſland; but the Entrance to the Place intended to be next attack'd, being ſecured by a Chain or Bomb, the breaking of which might greatly damage their Shipping, they deferred attempting it before more arrived; eſpecially as they apprehended the Chevalier Caylus, with a ſtrong Squadron from Martinico, would ſoon appear to relieve the French.

'Tis ſaid there are Advices from Commodore Warren, dated the Beginning of June, when Commodore Brett was arrived there with three Men of War from England, and a French Man of War of 64 Guns, called the Vigilante, which they had taken in their Paſſage, and which Ship they intended to man with Engliſh.

The Greyhound Privateer of Pool, Captain Bowden Commander, is taken by a French Dogger Privateer of 12 Carriage Guns, and carried into Cherburg.

The Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor has preſented the Rev. Mr. John Holmes to the Rectory of Little Sandall in the County of York.

Yeſterday Morning, about One o'Clock, Mr. Chambers, a Lieutenant of Marines, a young Gentleman about 22 Years of Age, had the Misfortune to ſlip off the Plank as he was going into the Graveſend Tilt Boat at Billingſgate, and was drown'd.

The Right Hon. the Counteſs of Berkeley is appointed one of the Ladies of the Bedchamber to her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales.

The most Noble ELIXIR,

For Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Hysterick Disease or Vapours in Women.

IN three Days Time demonstrates to every one who takes it, that it is absolutely infallible for the thorough Cure of those perplexing Indispositions, even in the highest and most grievous Degree, where nothing but Horror reigns, where Reasoning is interrupted or deprav'd, and where the Mind is confused with terrible Perturbation, Anxieties, and Despondency, even to Distraction, and the Body afflicted with almost innumerable Ailments.

'Tis surprizing to see how soon this CELEBRATED ELIXIR, (even a few Doses of it only) entirely cures the vast Variety of Symptoms, and induces a new Train of chearful and pleasant Ideas, instead of those deep and black Thoughts, those direful Apprehensions that so tenaciously dwelt upon the Soul, clouded the Understanding, and destroy'd all Notion of ever receiving Comfort again; for it occasions a Flow of the disturb'd Spirits, and causes bright Gleams of Joy to break in upon the Heart, and chace away the whole Load of depressed and melancholy Imaginations so effectually, that the Patients are suddenly reliev'd both in Body and Mind; and now enjoying perfect Health, free and lively Spirits, steady, serene, and gay Thoughts, are as much amaz'd that they could be chain'd down to such a dismal Way of Thinking, such dreadful Fears, and dark Incumbrances as before, they were hopeless of ever getting free from them.

In a Word, the Effect of this NOBLE ELIXIR is to suddenly and infallibly curing HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in Men, and the HYSTERICK DISEASE or VAPOURS in Women, in all their Shapes and Appearances, even after all other Remedies have proved fruitless, is inexpressible, as the vast Numbers of both Sexes who have been perfectly cured by it, with the utmost Satisfaction declare.

It occasions no Manner of Disorder, is pleasant to take, a few Drops of it are a Dose, and is to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.
